

Directory of Articles for Teachers Relating to the 250th Anniversary of the American Revolution

The Toil of Staying Loyal: Windows and Mirrors into the “dark side” of the American Revolution Susan Soprano

The Real Historians of New Jersey: How to Connect with the Past in 170 Miles Susan Soprano

How to Use the 250th Anniversary of the American Revolution in New Jersey Resources in a High School Social Studies Classroom Lucy Finnegan

Searching for Native Americans Living in New Jersey During the American Revolution Robert Fenster

An Educator’s Perspective on Teaching the Voices of Enslaved People in New Jersey as Part of Local History Robert Fenster

Teaching Colonel Tye: Slavery, Self-Emancipation, and the Black Brigade Bill Smith

NJCSS Commences Grant on Living in New Jersey Before & During the American Revolution by David DiCostanzo, Vineland HS

The History of the Lenni Lenape Before, During, and After the American Revolution David Di Costanzo

Telling Our Story: Living in New Jersey Before and During the Revolution David Di Costanzo

Using Decision-Making Activities to Think Critically in History Classrooms by Hayley Branstrom

What a Difference Six Hours Made in My Life as a History Teacher! Hank Bitten, NJCSS Executive Director.

Reflections on the 1770’s: Diaries of New Jersey Quakers Robert Ciarletta

Finding Our Place in Revolutionary History by Karen Parker